THE STATE OF NEW YORK OVER A FOREIGN STATE AND A STATE CITIZEN DOMICILED IN A FOREIGN STATE AND THE STATE OF NEW YORK TO HAVE JURISDICTION OVER A STATE CITIZEN OF A FOREIGN STATE WITH NO NEXUS WITH THE STATE OF NEW YORK

NOTICE TO THE COURT

Santhosh-Paul ®, Sui Juris, is Now giving FULL NOTICE OF DISCLOSURE as to my formal request to the CLERK OF MY "SPECIAL VISITATION" made by absolute ministerial right to the UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT pursuant to Rule 8(e) of the Rule of Practice and Procedure as a "Restricted Appearance."

Comes Now Santhosh-Paul ®, Sui Juris, a real flesh and blood man, a State Citizen and Inhabitant of the County of NASSAU County, by SPECIAL VISITATION, not general to Petition the Court to dismiss the lack of standing of the STATE OF NEW YORK, a corporation of the State of NEW YORK, to bring suit against a State Citizen outside the jurisdiction of the STATE OF NEW YORK in the above matter.

FACTS

1. Santhosh-Paul * is a State Citizen, not a citizen of the United States as defined within the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
2. Santhosh-Paul* is a Non-Adverse, Non-Belligerent, Non-Combatant, and Secured Party/Bailor for the Private Trust, Santhosh-Paul * and has declared his proper Legal Status and relation to the "State of NEW YORK" i.e. "Republic of NEW YORK," and to the de facto compact (corporate) Commercial STATES including, but not limited to, "THE STATE OF NEW YORK," or by whatever name it may be known or hereafter named [See Commercial filing of U.C.C. Financing Statement No: 201304010174208.]. [See Exhibit "A".
3. Black's Law, Abridged 6th ed. Pg. 261 Criminal Proceeding. One instituted and conducted for the purpose either of preventing the commission and punishing the offender; as distinguished from a "civil" proceeding, which is the redress of a private injury.

Once Jurisdiction is challenged, it must be proven.

4. The power which a court has over a defendant's person and which is required before a court can be either personal or in personam judgment (Pennover v, Neff 95 U.S. 714 24 L. Ed 565).
 - a. Live in district;
 - b. Own property in district;
 - c. Perform act that commits injury in the district;
 - d. Perform a service or business in the district;
 - e. Waive jurisdiction.
5. Personal jurisdiction is lawfully exercised over a defendant if the person lives in a jurisdiction, operates a business in a jurisdiction, owns property in a jurisdiction, or commits an act that causes injury in a jurisdiction and has had notice and opportunity free from fraud or mistake and in receipt of service and has had a copy of the petition, claim, or complaint if these elements are complete. Even if these elements are lacking, personal jurisdiction can be waived by appearance, excepting a person, not represented by counsel entering a special appearance for the purpose of challenging the courts personal jurisdiction.
6. As previously articulated Defendant Santhosh Paul * is a State Citizen, a flesh and blood man domiciled in Nassau County and therefore not subject to the jurisdiction of the STATE OF NEW YORK

Subject Matter Jurisdiction

Subject matter jurisdiction is the court power to hear and determine cases of general class or category to which proceedings in question belong; the power to deal with the general subject involved in the action consent of the parties, or through lapse of time or course of events other than the sufficient pleadings. Once established subject matter jurisdiction can be lost. When subject matter jurisdiction has been challenged the party asserting that the court has subject matter jurisdiction has the burden of proof of showing that it exists on the record. Once the court has knowledge that subject matter is lacking, the court has no discretion but to dismiss the action. Failure to dismiss means the court is proceeding in clear absence of all jurisdiction. Once jurisdiction is challenged it must be proven Hague v. Lavine, 415 U.S. 533 note 3.

In short, court proceedings must meet the following criteria to have subject matter jurisdiction:

- a. Two parties in appearance. One injured party;
- b. A Law, Statute, or precedent on the controversy
- c. Two witnesses and testimony. Attorney's cannot testify
- d. Sufficient pleadings
- e. Subject matter jurisdiction cannot be waived and it can easily be lost

The law provides that where "jurisdiction" is squarely challenged, all administrative and judicial enforcement of a supposed law must come to an end in the nature of an abatement and must be proven to exist-by production and pleading of the jurisdictional facts on the administrative level (5U.S.C. §§ 101-559, §§701-705 govern the issue).

Where jurisdiction is an issue of entirety the more imposition of jurisdiction is an assailable order itself and must be pleaded at the administrative level. Jurisdiction once challenged cannot be assumed and must be decided. The law provides that absent such proof of jurisdiction there is no subject matter to enforce. This principle is well set forth in Main v. Thisboughtout, 100 S. Ct. 2502, dissenting opinion.

STANDING TO SUE DOCTRINE

Standing to sue means that a party has sufficient stake in an otherwise justiciable controversy in order to obtain a judicial resolution of that controversy. Standing is a requirement that the Plaintiff(s) have been injured Black's Law Abridged 6th Ed. Pg. 978.

The NASSAU County Prosecuting Attorney d/b/a: ANNE DONNELLY and/or her successor(s), assign(s) and agent(s) known as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney is/are representing her client, THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Secured Party Trust challenges the ability of the STATE OF NEW YORK, and the NEW YORK STATE PAROLE BOARD being a party to the action and having standing to sue.

State Crimes

Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 1:

- (A) Applicability these rules prescribe the procedure to be followed in all courts of this state in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction.

In order to define the jurisdiction of the state courts to conduct criminal prosecutions over all justiciable matters, one would have to find out what the definition of "criminal jurisdiction" means. One would find in State v. Beasley (1984), 471 N.E. 2d 774, the court reasoned that "[C]rimes are statutory as are the penalties therefore, and only the sentence which a trial judge may impose is that provided by the statute."

Now adding a citation from the F.R.C.P. Rule 26, Notes of Advisory Committee on Rules Para. 2 in the middle. "On the other hand, since all federal crimes are statutory {See United States v. Hudson, 11 U.S. 32. 3 L. Ed. 259 (1812)} and all criminal prosecutions in the federal courts are based on "Acts of Congress."

One can safely draw the conclusion that all crimes within or against the State are, in fact, prosecuted under the ploy of "statutory jurisdiction." Which upon research and investigation, by any layman or student to the law, one will find that statutory jurisdiction is defined nowhere within the law and it's lawfully called FRAUD UPON THE COURT and it's a Federal violation of the law.

Under F.R.C.P. 54(c), "Acts of Congress" includes any act of Congress locally applicable to and in force in the District of Columbia, in Puerto Rico, in a territory or in an insular possession.

Each of us knows where the District of Columbia is, and where Puerto Rico is, and territories and insular possessions are listed in Title 48 of the United States Code and any State Codes is not included within the list. It appears that, in 2002 the federal judiciary decided to remove Rule 54(c) from the F.R.C.P. and revitalize Rule 54 as Rule 1 while removing the definition of "Act of Congress" altogether.

A clear explanation to the limited extent of Federal Jurisdiction in agreement with the above is found in the U.S. Attorney Manual, Section 9-20.000 entitled "Maritime Territorial, and Indian Possession."

Upon review, it seems that the most people in the fifty union States, living outside the federal zone, come under Rule 54(b)(2) of the F.R.C.P. entitled "Offenses Outside a District or State,":

(2) Offenses Outside a District or State

These rules apply to proceedings for the offenses committed upon the high seas or elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of any particular state or district except that such proceedings may be had in any district authorized by 18 U.S.C. §3238.

Article III district courts of the United States, as defined in 28 U.S.C. §45(8) and the three remaining territorial courts (See 18 U.S.C. §23 and F.R.C.P. 54(a) for the listing of legitimate "Article IV" territorial courts which have somewhat the character and authority of Article III district courts of the United States situated in the Union of the several states), are courts of the United States.

The Article III district court was defined in a 1938 Supreme Court decision in Mookini v. United States, 42 S. Ct. 543, 303 U.S. 201, 82 L. Ed. 627 and 28 U.S. 312 as follows:

"The term "District Court of the United States<" as used in the rules, without an addition expressing a wider connotation, has its historic significance. It describes the Constitutional Courts created under Article III of the Constitution, properly speaking, and is not District Courts of the United States. We have often held that vesting a territorial court with jurisdiction similar to that vested in the District Court of the United States does not make it a "District Court of the United States."

Whenever territories of the United States were admitted to the union (in this case re: 00035N-2007), Article I territorial courts replaced by Article III District courts of the United States. The fact that the territorial courts were abolished with admittance of a territory to the Union of the several States, party to the Constitution is verified in §§62-64 of the Act of March 3, 1911, Ch. 231, 36 Stat 1104.

Sec. 62 "When any Territory is admitted as a State, and a district court is established therein, all records of the proceedings in the several cases pending in the highest court of said Territory at the time of such admission, and all records of the proceedings in the several cases in which judgments of decrees had been rendered in said Territorial court before that time, and from which error had been sued out/or appeals had been taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court or to the circuit court of appeals, shall be transferred to and deposited in the district court for the said States."

Sec. 63 "It shall be the duty of the district judge, in the cases provided in the proceeding section to demand on the clerk or other person having possession or custody of the records therein mentioned the delivery thereof to be deposited in said district court; and in the case of refusal of such clerk or person to comply with such demand the said district judge shall compel the delivery of such records by attachment or otherwise, according to law."

Sec. 64 "When any territory is admitted as a State, and a district court is established therein, the said district court shall take cognizance of all cases which are pending and undetermined in the trial courts of such territory from the judgments of decrees to be rendered in which writs of error could have been sued out or appeals taken to the Supreme Court or to the circuit court of appeals, and shall proceed to hear and determine the same."

The above sections were derived from §§567-568 of the Revised Statutes of 1878, page 97, therefore, they weren't new in 1911 or even in 1878, but originated previously. They clearly demonstrate that the nature of the courts of the United States (including State courts) is an either/or proposition. Either they must be district courts of the United States, vested with Judicial power of the United States via Article III of the Constitution, or they must be Article I legislative courts, with territorial courts having jurisdiction limited to territory subject to Congress Article IV §3.2 legislative authority. There is no statutory provision or justification for maintaining territorial courts once a territory of the United States is admitted to the Union of the several States. When a territory is admitted to the Union, only Article III courts of the United States may make determinations that deprive the sovereign people of life, liberty, or property. The Fifth Article of the Amendment, as well as, the "arising under" clause at Article III §2.1 of the Constitution, cannot be abridged by Congress or the judicial branch of government.

It should now be obvious that the, STATE OF NEW YORK COURTS situated in the State of NEW YORK are not Article III Constitutional courts, and they are not Article I territorial courts, known as State of NEW YORK District Courts. It is fair to say they are, in fact, "outlaw" courts which do not exist by laws of the United States

Promulgated by Congress, and do not exercise judicial authority of the United States.

Next, it is important to understand that the "State of NEW YORK " responsible for civil and criminal initiatives in the State of NEW YORK Courts is a government foreign to the State of NEW YORK that has no constitutional or statutory authority in the State, party to the Constitution. Where State government has two capacities or characters, there are two distinct political alliances or coalitions named "State of New York."

The original State of New York, spelled with capital first letters, "to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare" by the "Constitution of the State of New York." This same State of New York appears in the Preamble of the Constitution of the State of New York: "We the people of the State of New York do not establish this Constitution."

The Constitution of the State of New York enumerates certain powers vested in the governmental entities known and designated as the State of New York, not the STATE OF NEW YORK. Limitations on State of New York authority are also articulated in the Constitution of the State of New York .

"All political power is inherent to the people. Government is instituted for their equal protection and benefit, and they have the right to alter, reform, or abolish the same, whenever they may deem necessary."

"The enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people, and all powers, not herein delegated, remain with the people."

By substituting the "State of New York "for the "STATE OF NEW YORK "as the principle interest in State civil and criminal initiatives is only the beginning of fraud.

The State of New York is a political coalition, compact, or alliance of insular possessions known as "Counties" or "County of" subject to sovereignty of the State of New York via the General Assembly's plenary power in territory belonging to the State of New York under authority of Articles of the Constitution.

According to the State Constitutional Article titled: PUBLIC DEBT AND PUBLIC WORKS, "The state shall not become joint owner or stockholder," and "The credit of the state shall not in any manner, be given or loaned t, or in aid of any individual association or corporation whatsoever, nor shall the state hereafter become joint owner or stockholder, in any company or association in this state, or elsewhere, formed for any purpose what so ever."

Further in the Article we read in part: "NO laws shall be passed authorizing any county, city, town, or township, by vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become stockholder in any joint stock company, Corporation or association what so ever."

By putting the STATE OF NEW YORK in substitute of State of New York, we know by way of several of the United States Code(s), delegations of authorities, treaties, etc., the STATE OF NEW YORK, is lawfully defined as an Agency of the State of New York. The entity itself is probably classified or designated as a municipal corporation.

Accordingly the "State of New York "must bring action, "at the instance of the State of New York "in a district court of the United States" in all civil and/or criminal actions.

In the action before the court, it is the STATE OF NEW YORK brought the action in THE STATE OF NEW YORK COURT.

THE STATE OF NEW YORK does not have the "standing to sue."

Virtually every initiative in both civil and criminal actions is, in fact, defective by virtue of being without lawful authority. All cases are prosecuted in the State of New York courts, in the name and by the authority of the State of New York . No Article III or Article I Jurisdiction of the United States is vested in the STATE OF New York courts in or within the State of New York. They are not courts created by Congress, they are private courts created by judicial consortium. The folks appointed under Article IV §1 of the Constitution to preside in lawful courts of the state of New York , but without constitutional or statutory authority elected to set up a system of private courts systems which, in fact, operate under the territorial illusion. The courts in the State of New York have been operating in this same manner and fashion for countless years, however, this does not mean the illusion is legal or lawful, it's" just the way business is done." That is the purpose and intention of this jurisdictional challenge, to demand that the State of New York and its agencies operating under the entity of THE STATE OF NEW YORK prove lawful personal and subject Matter jurisdiction over this or any private citizen.

The claim was and is, that the New York Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, as well as, the New York Adult Parole Authority did not and does not have lawful jurisdiction over this Private Citizen which would allow the New York Department of Rehabilitation and Correction and the New York Adult Parole Authority to have any alleged authority over or power to enforce any debt(s), duty(s), fee(s), fine(s) or obligations upon this Private Citizen.

Before the trial court determines it necessary to dismiss this challenge for "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted," pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) (6) let the court be reminded Fed. R. Civ.P.

12(b) (6) is an application, it is a challenge made at the very beginning of a case. By accepting the State Of New York 's claim of "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted" would imply that this court has to accept all of the State of New York's allegations as being true, without lawfully providing documented evidence, while ignoring this Private Citizens claim that the State of New York d/b/a the New York Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections and/or the New York Adult Parole Authority, has no lawful jurisdiction over this Private Citizen and indicate that this Private Citizens challenge has absolutely no merit or lawful standing in its courts. This Private Citizen has provided the State of New York, Department of Rehabilitation, the New York County Court of Common Pleas, the County Clerk of Courts and its Agency(s), Sub-Agency(s), Agent(s), Subordinate(s) with lawful registered and accepted document evidence (proof) of his status as a Private Citizen, as well as, his standing with the State of New York and all of its counties. While those Agent(s) in administrative positions, such as the New York Secretary of State, have confirmed the validity of this Private Citizens lawful status as a State Citizen not bound by the restriction of a Fourteenth Article of Amendment Constitutional citizen, State of New York agency known as the New York Department of Rehabilitation and Correction believes that they are not required to recognize commercially registered instruments

This Private Citizen understands he may be a layman of the law, however, this Private Citizen has found no place in the law where it states anything contrary to "Once jurisdiction is Challenged, it must be proven." To allow the State of New York to get by with not answering this challenge would, in fact, be deliberate "Fraud Upon the Court," committed by both the State of New York and those individuals appointed under Article IV §1 of the Constitution to preside in lawful courts of the state of New York .

The law clearly states that if the State of New York claims to have jurisdiction over this Private Citizen then the State of New York d/b/a the New York Department of Rehabilitation and Correction, a/k/a Adult Parole Authority must upon formal request and/or petition provide under full disclosure the contracts, documents, instruments, presentments, evidence and/or proof of said jurisdiction.

New York If the Law(s) and Statute(s) cannot be certified or jurisdiction proven, all charges shall become null and void and the release or property shall be released [P.R.C/ Parole] from the State of , its Agency(s), Sub-Agency(s), Agent(s) and Subordinates, including but not limited to, the Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections.
